

Makers' Space Coordinator and Educational Technologist

Cranbrook Kingswood Upper School is seeking an expert collaborator who can both cultivate teachers' use of technology and inspire engagement with our new state-of-the-art Makers' Space. Dynamically assisting our IT professionals, working with teachers, and guiding our makers, this relationship-builder works across departments to inspire the creative and innovative potential within our students and teachers. Coordination with other adults, management of budgets, ordering, expenditures, maintenance, space, materials, equipment, and training are all necessary aspects of this position. This educational strategist is a member of the Upper School's Educational Policies Committee and advises academic leaders on trends in educational technology and modern pedagogy.

Collaboration with committed colleagues, creation of powerful learning experiences for a globally diverse student body, commitment to making a positive impact on the lives of adolescents through interpersonal relationships, setting a positive tone, and treating students as individuals within the context of a broader community are all critical components of this position.

This full-time member of the Upper School faculty also contributes to a large extracurricular program in areas such as Athletics, Debate, Newspaper, or Robotics, to name a few examples. Additionally, it is understood that the successful candidate has a demonstrated commitment to working in an extraordinarily diverse and inclusive community and participating in an enriching residential program.

Cranbrook is a PK-12 school with a vibrant boarding component in grades 9-12, allowing the school to provide teachers with the opportunity to live and work on our architecturally famous 319-acre campus. Often living and working in our residence halls, faculty engage students and support their development as members of a shared community. Eagerness to live among students, and to engage them in the evenings and on the weekends as a part of an exciting residential program, is considered significantly beneficial.

The campus also hosts a Graduate Academy of Art, a Science Museum, and an Art Museum, which together comprise the Cranbrook Educational Community. The art and architecture that shape the campus are designed to complement the surrounding natural environment, making for a truly stunning campus. The campus is located about 10 miles north of Detroit. For more, please visit our website: www.cranbrook.edu, and take an aerial tour of the campus.

Cranbrook offers competitive compensation and benefits that include medical, dental, life insurance, long-term and short-term disability, and retirement programs with employer contribution.

This position requires a Bachelor's Degree with a Master's Degree preferred. Substantial experience and enthusiasm for teaching and working with adolescents and excellent communication skills are expected for all members of the faculty. Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae or résumé, a completed Faculty Application, copies of undergraduate and graduate transcripts, statement of educational philosophy relative to this position, and two or three letters of recommendation with contact
