

Robotics Day Camp Assistant Director

Duties: Assist the director with designing and planning Robotics Day Camp and ensure its delivery in a safe and quality manner. Provide leadership, innovation, and oversight during its summer operation. Responsibilities include assisting in the creation, preparation, management, and improvement of a quality, sustainable, and profitable camp and the recruiting, hiring, and training of staff.

Qualifications: BA/BS/AS degree in Education or related field; professional experience in teaching robotics; experience in designing and operating a program for children; 1+ years administrative, supervisory, and childcare experience; ability to relate with campers, staff and parents; superior capabilities in preparation, organization, analysis, problem-solving, diplomacy, flexibility, and adherence to schedules; camp administration, program and/or child development, and performance development experience preferred; requires a valid driver's license with satisfactory driving record.

Preferred: Experience with Lego and Vex IQ robotics. Timeframe: The assistant director works 40 preseason remote hours between February and June. The assistant director must be present for staff orientation starting Thursday, June 17, 2021 and ending Sunday, June 20, 2021. The assistant director must be present and work 7.5-hour days from Monday, June 21, 2021 through Friday, August 13, 2021. No weekend commitments during camp. After-camp clean-up days may be required. Wage: $16 per hour. Benefits: Lunch provided; discounts for children/grandchildren; annual wage increases.

To Apply: Submit an application.